DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to Applicants' paper filed 05 November 2004, wherein applicants elected Group I, claims 1-40, 47-49, 53-61 and 133-136, and added new claims 137-175. The examiner acknowledges the election of Group I, however, upon further consideration and in view of the breadth of the generic claims, the examiner requires an election of species as follows:

Election/Restrictions

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: methods of using a composition comprising a specified amino acid sequence with a myriad of possible additional or substitutive agents, isoforms, variants, inhibitors, stimulators, etc...

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, all claims are generic and are not specific as to the exact composition. The applicant is requested to specify each compound of the desired compositional species, and by this, applicant should not state that one compound of the composition is a class, instead, specify which member of the class is represented by that compound in the composition.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
